Head Start Awareness

October is Head Start Awareness month and this year marks the 55th anniversary year of Head Start's national service. Throughout these years, Head Start has already helped over 37 million children and their families-including the very children your staff greet each day!

Congressional Conversation Guide

2020 Fall Leadership Institute

Visiting with members of Congress and their staff can seem intimidating, but don't forget: they're just people too! Moreover, their goal is to learn from and represent the interests of their constituents. With that in mind, your number one goal should be to be seen as a trusted resource to them. If you do that, you will have had a successful meeting.

The Five Most Critical Meeting Elements

- 1. Thank your members of Congress for their commitment to issues that impact children and families, including Head Start in FY20 and in the CARES Act.
- 2. Create a positive impression about Head Start and Early Head Start's impact in the member's state or district. Make sure that they see Head Start as an important part of the communities they represent.
- 3. Share about the importance of Head Start's role in supporting children and families, especially during the new challenges brought on by COVID-19. While members of Congress and their staff like to hear statistics that prove the effectiveness of programs, personal stories have a more profound and lasting impact.
- 4. Look to the future: Ask for support of 1) Head Start and Early Head Start's continued success in FY21 and 2) support to meet the increased costs of COVID-19.
- 5. Gather intelligence to better inform your ongoing advocacy efforts. For example, questions to staff might include: What are your member's top priorities? What does your member think about Head Start? What else can or should we be doing?

If you don't know the answer to a question, that is totally okay!

Simply write the question down, and tell whomever you are meeting with that you or NHSA will get them an answer soon—and be sure to flag the question for NHSA staff! You can do this by sending a quick email to advocacy@nhsa.org.
